The prayer made in the writ petition is for quashing the action of the respondents in not considering the request of the petitioner for inter-district transfer i.e. from District Panipat to District Sonepat as per the guidelines dated 21.6.2006 whereby the respondents had offered to transfer the JBT teachers to district of their choice even the petitioner had agreed to loose his 23 years seniority, with a further prayer to direct the respondents to consider the request of the petitioner for transfer as per his option.

For the aforementioned relief claimed in the present writ petition, the petitioner has already represented to the respondents vide representation dated 1.9.2006 (P-8).
